

Welcome to Seoul.

SEOUL SOCCER CLUB loves 1990s culture and soccer.

We collect vintage soccer jerseys and memorabilia that become more meaningful with time, and display them here for everyone to enjoy.

There are quite a few pieces here that are hard to find. Once they are sold, even for us they are difficult to source again, so this place is built first around collecting and sharing, not selling as much as possible.

Take your time and enjoy the collection as you would a small museum, revisiting memories through old jerseys and discovering rare pieces along the way.

Our pricing reflects each item's rarity, condition, and value in the international vintage market, with overseas prices carefully considered so the range stays reasonable.

Whether or not you buy anything, feel free to look around slowly, take photos, make memories, and enjoy your visit.

For those who want to enjoy soccer culture beyond jerseys, we also offer clothing designed and made by us. These are everyday pieces anyone can wear comfortably, even without knowing much about soccer.

If you like what we have built here and the way we think, we would be happy for you to join the story of SEOUL SOCCER CLUB through the clothes we make.

Thank you for visiting today.
Have a great day in Seoul. :)
